Put Your Real Estate in the Spotlight!

which they feel an inclination to buy.

People like to know ALL ABOUT real estate

They want commercial surveys of its possibilities laid before them, in brief.

They want to know the seller's innermost mind about that real estate. They do not regard it as a matter for suspicion that the property is for sale—they just want to get rather intimately acquainted with it before buying it.

Campaigns of real estate advertising at this season may serve to keep your property in the spotlight, and to serve the interest of your buyers to the closing point.

And, by the way, did you ever hear of a successful real estate advertising campaign with Herald "Class Ads" which "cost too much?"

SUES SECRETARY LANE FOR HOMESTEAD PLOT

Westerner Claims He Bought Tract Afterward Given to Another. Secretary of the Interior Frank-n K. Lane and Commissioner Clay

preme Court yesterday by James W. Calkins, a resident of Idaho. The plaintiff claims that on December 12, 1912, he made a homestead entry on the famous Coeur D'Alene Homestead which was recognized by the General Land Office. Since then, Caikins states, he has paid in full for the land. Nevertheless, he says, on July 23, 1915, the land office allowed one Thomas Coddington, to lay claim to the homestead, in violation of the law, which provides that after a person which provides that after a person through the control of the law, which provides that after a person through the control of the law, which provides that after a person the control of the law. stead entry on the famous Coeur homestead, in violation of the law, which provides that after a person has held possession of the tract of land two years without a contest, he automatically becomes entitled to a patent for the same.
